International Mathematics Olympiad comes to Killara

As has been recently reported in the media, Australia enjoyed great success in the International Mathematics Olympiad in 2015, placing sixth in the world – our best result in 35 years.

Each year approximately 20 students in NSW are selected to undertake a rigorous 4-hour examination based on their performance in the Mathematics Challenge for Young Australians and the Australian Mathematics Competition. This examination then leads to an invitational intensive Australian Mathematics Olympiad residential school, at which the final team to compete in the Olympiad is chosen.

On 11 August two of Killara’s accelerated Year 11 Mathematics students, Wilson Zhao and Johnny Lim, completed this initial selection examination. They both reported that whilst the paper was difficult they managed to produce solutions to all problems. During 2014 Wilson was successful in gaining an invitation to the residential school: “Mathematics Hell Week!”

Congratulations to both Wilson and Johnny and we wish them the best of luck in the next stages of this process.

Fancy trying an Olympiad question? This one is from the selection test in 2014:

Problem 3. Find all positive integers \( n \) such that for any integer \( k \) there exists an integer \( a \) for which \( a^2 + a - k \) is divisible by \( n \).

Or how about trying the question of the week on the whiteboard outside the Mathematics staff room? Give your solutions to Mr Tsang for a merit.

Boys’ Knockout Baseball Team Success

Our boys’ knockout baseball team have enjoyed considerable success in 2015. We started off with a hard fought victory (5-4) over Narrabeen Sports High School on a wet day, with Chinese reality TV crews on call.

We then played against Gorokan High School, and won comprehensively (12-8). A highlight of the game was Minami sending one over the left field fence.

Epping Boys High School were our next opponents, and then Cherrybrook Technology. Matthew Lee was the surprise package in this game, hitting multiple home runs against Cherrybrook, after breaking his wrist in the Epping game. He showed a tremendous amount of courage to get back on the field.

Lastly, the boys played in Tamworth, and walked away 13-2 victors.

Congratulations to this wonderful team, and the best of luck in the next round.

Killara High School
A great school close to home
Snowsports at Killara High School grew 400% this year during the recent NSW Northern Region Snowsports competitions at Perisher in the NSW Snowy Mountains.

Competing were, Lucy Allen and Shannon Klass (Division 3 - Years 7-8), Tom Reidy (Division 2 - Years 9-10) and Adam Zalums (Division 1 - Years 11-12).

It was the first experience for Lucy, Shannon and Tom who competed in SkierCross and Alpine races. Adam the veteran of the group, having participated in Snowsports since Year 5, competed in Moguls and SkierCross this year.

As always, the goals of Snowsports were put into action, FUN first, IMPROVE SKILLS next and COMPETE as a team and/or an individual. Check out the YouTube link.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pY4NIMYcHyE

Everyone did well with Adam earning 1st place for Division 1, Moguls. What a great result.

The top 5 teams (and top 10 individuals) in each Snowsports discipline are invited to the next round of competition, NSW State, scheduled for the last week of August. This year’s qualifier for NSW State Snowsports competition is Adam, who will represent Killara High School in Moguls and SkierCross. A good result in State will lead to the National Competition at Mt Buller in Victoria in early September.

Let’s make Snowsports even bigger next year for Killara High School. If you would like to join the team, please contact Killara High School Snowsports Coordinator, Peter Zalums pzalums@yahoo.com.au to find out how to get involved.

Good luck to Adam at State and in anticipation, at Nationals as well.

EKBUBA 2015
YEAR 12 FAREWELL DINNER:
Thursday 17 September

Traditionally at Killara High School, a committee of Year 11 parents organizes the Year 12 Farewell Dinner, known as EKUBA, in the Kerrabee Centre. There will be over 500 students, parents and teachers attending the function which is always a very happy occasion, and it will be your turn to enjoy the event with your Year 12 next year. Planning for this year's dinner is well underway and the committee now needs the help of the Year 11 parents.

We are looking for as many parent volunteers as possible, firstly in two shifts from 11.30am till approximately 4.00pm. Jobs in the first 2 shifts will include setting up, laying the tables and decorating the hall. During the event, Year 11 parents keep the non-alcoholic drinks flowing. We will also need many hands later in the evening for the clean-up (approximately 10.00pm - 11.00pm). In previous years with lots of willing helpers the clean-up has been done in about half an hour.

You are welcome to volunteer for more than one shift. Please note that it would be great to have some men helping in Shift 1 and Shift 4 as we have lots of heavy lifting of chairs and tables.

- Shift 1: set up (11.00am – 1.30pm)
- Shift 2: set up (1.30pm - 4.00pm approximately)
- Shift 3: serving soft drinks to Year 12 parents (6.15pm – 10.00pm) Please wear black and white.
- Shift 4: clearing up at end (10.00pm onwards)

Please email Amanda Green: tonyamanda@bigpond.com to specify how you can help.

Please tell us as soon as you can, when you can help for this special Killara High School event.

For more information, call a member of the Ekuba Committee:

Year 12 Ekuba Dinner

What to expect at the Ekuba Graduation Dinner.

If you haven’t already made your booking for the night, please do so as soon as possible.

Go to www.trybooking.com/141586 to make your reservation before Tuesday 8 September.

Please remember you also need to include and pay for your child in the booking. (Due to catering restrictions, no bookings will be taken after this date).

When you make your booking on the trybooking website you are asked to nominate 3 students that your child would like to sit with. These names are compiled and a seating plan is organised by the teachers. While not being able to guarantee your child will be seated with all three friends, staff will do their very best to accommodate everyone’s requests.

The Kerrabee Centre is set up with 10 long tables where students sit with their parents/guests and their friends. A beautiful, fully catered sit-down meal is served and entertainment and presentations are made. The Kerrabee Centre has had a power upgrade to accommodate the catering equipment, and last year’s dinner was a huge success.

Ekuba is a very special and memorable evening where you celebrate your child’s success and hard work in completing Year 12.

It is a night not to be missed!

Annual Visual Arts Exhibition

The Annual Visual Arts Exhibition was a huge success again this year, with work exhibited from all students studying Visual Arts from Year 7 through to Year 12. The exhibition was officially opened by our Principal Jane Dennett and was followed with a concert by Year 12 Music students, which was an entertaining showcase of the talented students studying Music this year.

Congratulations to the following students who received awards on the night:
- Year 10 student Katya Buryak who received the Up and Coming Artist Award
- Year 9 student Emma Ramsey who received the Up and Coming Photographer Award
- Year 12 student Han Sul Park won the Outstanding Year 12 Body of Work Award with her evocative photographs “Untitled Nine (Homage to Henson)” which demonstrate outstanding photographic, lighting and composition skill. Congratulations Han Sul.

Below is an excerpt of the speech from the Head Teacher of Creative and Performing Arts, Giovanna Trenoweth.

“At exhibition time I like to take a moment and reflect back on any big issues or media interest in the arts over the past year. One thing that caught my eye this year was a speech by actress Tilda Swinton and I would like to share a small part of what she said…

“Discovering the landscape of a world inhabited by artists has been one of the miracles of my life.

I believe that all great art holds the power to dissolve things: time, distance, difference, injustice, alienation, despair.

I believe that all great art holds the power to mend things: join, comfort, inspire hope in fellowship, reconcile us to ourselves.

Art is good for my soul precisely because it reminds me that we have souls in the first place. We stand before a work of art and our spirit is lifted by it: amazing that someone is like us! We stand before a work of art and our spirit resists: amazing that someone is different!”. Tilda Swinton.

Last year on this night I asked you to consider what art means to you. Tonight I would like you to contemplate why art is good for your soul.

Like Tilda Swinton discovering the world of art and artists has been one of the miracles of my life too. Art and artists keep us honest, make us see the truth, take us to wonderful real and imagined places and so much more.

Artists such as Ben Quilty whose painterly canvases take his audience on many and varied journeys also uses his position as an artist to comment on big issues that effect our society such as the death penalty and racism. He has stood up verbally and through his artmaking practice to take a stand for injustice he sees in the world. Through his eyes and his art, we, the audience see his truth, his passion, his heart. He inspires me to be a better person and to stand up for what I believe in. Ben Quilty and his work is good for my soul.

I am heartened by the genuine interest many of our senior students have shown in looking deeply at contemporary art practice which challenges traditional notions of art. I am excited to teach students. in particular our Year 11 cohort, who want to discuss the big issues, who want to understand the conceptual nature of installation and performance art and who I bump into in the queue to exhibitions such as Marina Abramovic - leading to fascinating discussions about counting rice and staring into the eyes of a stranger. I discovered it is not only good for my soul to count rice but it is good for my soul to know that the future of visual arts is in the hands of such amazing young people as my Year 11 class.

I would like to congratulate all the artists exhibiting work here tonight from Year 7 up and especially our Year 12 students (and their parents, family and teachers who have supported them through their artistic journey). The Year 12 students have survived the ups and downs of the creative process to produce a range of impressive artworks. For some it has been a struggle, balancing artistic integrity with the requirements of the Board of Studies, for some it has been consistent hard work from day one, for some it has been a race to the finish line but for all I think it has been a challenge to develop an idea, listen to constructive criticism, further develop their work and then effectively communicate that to us their audience. In years to come these students may not remember how to create a lino print or the name of that obscure artwork they had to learn for their HSC essay but I do hope that we have been able to instil a love for the arts, an understanding of the creative process and most importantly a sense of the power of the arts of which Tilda Swinton spoke.

On behalf of the students and myself I would like to thank the amazing team of teachers in the Creative and Performing Arts faculty who have worked with dedication, professionalism and passion to assist the young people of Killara High School to create such outstanding work. They are an amazing team and I feel privileged to work with them – thank you!”

Reminder to Parents and Carers

As winter progresses we have more and more students making their way to the First Aid room at Reception.

The procedure that we have in place is to ensure our duty of care for all students of Killara High School, which involves students reporting first to Sick Bay. The staff that are supervising Sick Bay will then contact parents appropriately, and ask them if they are available to collect their children.

It would be helpful if parents could reinforce this procedure with their students and tell them to report to sick bay and allow the school the discretion to contact the parents.

Thank you for your cooperation in helping to keep all of our students safe.

MindMatters Parent Survey

A reminder that the MindMatters Parent survey opens this Thursday 20 August and closes on 7 September, and we are very keen to have as many parents and carers complete the survey as possible. Ms Julie Hughes, our SAM, will send a survey link to all parents via email and this link will take you to the MindMatters survey site.

As recent editions of the school’s newsletter have outlined, Killara High School is a MindMatters school and this year we have worked with staff to better understand what wellbeing means, the things that support positive wellbeing and the risk factors that impact of wellbeing. We have also focused as a staff on how to strengthen our own wellbeing and that of our students.

This term 111 staff completed the Staff MindMatters survey, and in our professional learning in Week 9 this term we will unpack the data from staff survey and the parent survey.

To date, Years 7, 9, 12 and 10 students (some 890 students) have completed the MindMatters student survey, with Years 8 and 11 completing their surveys in Weeks 8 and 9 this term respectively.

We are looking forward to sharing this data with the school community and together building on our existing programs that build and support resilience and wellbeing, while importantly creating new evidence based programs and initiatives that respond to the needs as identified by students, staff and parents. This vital work will start in Term 4.

You will find below the article that has appeared in previous newsletters telling you a little more about MindMatters.

MindMatters
Killara High School is undertaking a mental health initiative for all sectors of the KHS community. This federally based initiative is known as ‘MindMatters’ and has been used in schools since 2003. This is an extension of KidsMatters, the primary schools framework, and is endorsed by organisations such as ‘Beyond Blue’ and by the Australian Principals’ Institute.

The mental health of students affects all aspects of the school community – from student engagement and academic achievement, to social adjustment and staff wellbeing. Schools that promote a positive environment perform better, attract and retain more students and build a strong reputation in the community. The mental health of all students is a key foundation for school success.

WHAT IS MINDMATTERS?
MindMatters is a ‘framework’ that provides structure, guidance and support while enabling schools to build their own mental health strategy to suit their unique circumstances. This has been embedded within our school strategic directions and as such will be a program rolled out over a period of years. All content will be informed by strong evidence in the area of school mental health and wellbeing and this includes use of survey tools and other school data. The use of MindMatters resources has mental health benefits for the entire school community – including students, families and school staff.

HOW DOES IT WORK?
MindMatters is based on the principle that the best mental health strategy is one that prevents issues from arising in the first place. For this reason MindMatters helps schools promote positive mental health through the whole school community, and aims to prevent mental health difficulties in students by taking steps to improve relationships and resilience. MindMatters provides staff with practical advice and guidance so that they can support students who may be struggling with mental health difficulties in a timely and appropriate way. Promotion, prevention and early intervention are central tenets of the MindMatters approach.

To guide the creation of the program for Killara High School, all stakeholders will be invited to contribute via surveys. This includes students, staff and families. Staff will be surveyed during week 1 of Term 3. Families will be invited by email to complete an online survey later in Term 3.

Students will be asked to complete the MindMatters survey during Home Group sessions in Term 3. The survey schedule for the completion of these surveys appears below.

TERM 3 2015
Week 2 Year 7
Week 3 Year 9
Week 4 Year 12
Week 5 Year 10
Week 8 Year 8
Week 9 Year 11

If you do not wish your child to participate in this survey, please email Deputy Principal Carla Marchesin at carla.marchesin@det.nsw.edu.au

Challinor, Deborah - My Australian story: Vietnam
It's 1969 and Davey lives to surf with his older brother Tom and listen to the latest hits. Davey's most cherished goal is to win the inaugural Newcastle Under-14 Surf Championship planned for May 1970 with his best friends Johnno and Pete. But then Tom is drafted into the army and sent to Vietnam and everything changes.

Ferris, Fleur - Risk
Taylor and Sierra have been best friends for their whole lives. But Taylor's fed up. Why does Sierra always get what – and who – she wants? From kissing Taylor’s crush to stealing the guy they both met online for herself, Sierra doesn’t seem to notice when she hurts her friends. So when Sierra says Jacob Jones is the one and asks her friends to cover for her while she goes to meet him for the first time, Taylor rolls her eyes. But Sierra doesn’t come back when she said she would.

One day. Two days. Three... What if Taylor’s worrying for nothing? What if Sierra’s just being Sierra, forgetting about everyone else to spend time with her new guy? When Taylor finally tells Sierra’s mum that her daughter is missing, Taylor and her friends are thrown into a dark world they never even knew existed. Can Taylor find Sierra’s abductor in time? Or should she be looking for a killer?

Gleitzman, Morris - Soon [Once #5]
Soon continues the incredibly moving story of Felix, a Jewish boy still struggling to survive in the wake of the liberation of Poland after the end of World War Two.

Lawson, Sue - Freedom Ride
Robbie knows bad things happen in Walgaree. But it's nothing to do with him. That's just the way the Aborigines have always been treated. In the summer of 1965 racial tensions in the town are at boiling point, and something headed Walgaree's way will blow things apart. It's time for Robbie to take a stand. Nothing will ever be the same.

Mullany, Janet - Jane Austen: Blood persuasion [Immortal Jane Austen #2]
It is 1810, and the Damned are out of favour—banished from polite society. Jane Austen’s old undead friends have become new neighbours, raising hell in her tranquil village just in time to interrupt Jane's work on what will be her masterpiece. Writing is simply impossible now, with murderous creatures prowling the village's once-peaceful lanes. And with the return of her vampire characteristics, a civil war looming between factions of the Damned, and a former lover who intends to spend eternity blaming her for his broken heart, Jane is facing a very busy year indeed.

Richardson Christopher - Empire of Waves: Voyage of the Moon Child
Pel Narine is on the edge of war, and Anni Tidechild is on the brink of change. Uncertain about her past and fearful of the future, Anni lives a life of evasion; avoiding both her guardian, Wavelord Filip Able, and the voice that calls to her from the sea. When she meets Duck Knifetooth, the new friends are catapulted into unforeseen danger: pirates, the last giant, a mysterious ship and ancient creatures of the deep. It was a message to the Tidechild from the Pool of Fire in the Deep. Just five words... We are waiting for you. From an exciting new voice comes the first book in a thrilling series - an epic seafaring quest for truth and freedom.

Scarfe, Wendy - Hunger Town
In the violent and despairing years of Australia's Great Depression, Judith Larsen grows up on a coaling hulk in the Port Adelaide River. The Australian political landscape is changing and unemployment, hunger, protests and police reprisals spawn new radical ideas for managing society. Judith falls in love with Harry, an idealistic dreamer who embraces the dogma of the Communist Party while she flourishes as a satirical cartoonist. Political tensions rise between them but when Harry's life is threatened Judith embarks on a perilous journey across the world to save him. In doing so she comes face to face with the cruelty and oppression of fascism and the importance of those who fight against it.

Whyte, Jack - The Lance Thrower [Camulod Chronicles #8]
Jack Whyte has written a lyrical epic, retelling the myths behind the boy who would become the Man Who Would Be King—Arthur Pendragon. He has shown us "the bone beneath the flesh of legend." In his last book in this series, we witnessed the young king pull the sword from the stone and begin his journey to greatness. Now we reach the tale itself—how the most shining court in history was made.

Winton, Tim - Scission
In this, Tim Winton's first collection of short stories, the world he paints is often harsh and disturbing, inhabited by isolated, unforgiving characters. It is a world at once familiar, filled with the trappings of home and family, and yet also strangely twisted; a world where casual brutality and unexpected death are never far from the surface.
